Old Testament Reading Ezekiel 2:1–5

¹He said to me, “Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you.” ²And as he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me. ³And he said to me, “Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel, to nations of rebels, who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me to this very day. ⁴The descendants also are impudent and stubborn: I send you to them, and you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD.’ ⁵And whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house) they will know that a prophet has been among them.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

Epistle 2 Corinthians 12:1–10

¹I must go on boasting. Though there is nothing to be gained by it, I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows. ³And I know that this man was caught up into paradise—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— ⁴and he heard things that cannot be told, which man may not utter. ⁵On behalf of this man I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. ⁶Though if I should wish to boast, I would not be a fool, for I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me. ⁷So to keep me from being too elated by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. ⁸Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. ⁹But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ¹⁰For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God

Holy Gospel Mark 6:1–13

¹[Jesus] went away from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. ²And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get these things? What is the wisdom given to him? How are such mighty works done by his hands? ³Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. ⁴And Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household.” ⁵And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went about among the villages teaching. ⁷And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. ⁸He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts—⁹but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. ¹⁰And he said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. ¹¹ And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.” ¹²So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. ¹³And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Operation Emmaus

There are three tubs in the church entry among the coat rack for Operation Emmaus. We are gathering food, toiletries, and personal items to send to the troops. Please stop by the display and pick up a sheet showing what the soldiers have requested.

Pantry

The Pantry is low on all supplies and needs donations of any kind. We are also looking for a cute little red wagon to haul donations for the Pantry over to the Pantry. You may drop off donated goods at the pantry or inside the school doors. Thank you!

Quilters

The Quilters have requested donations of blankets and sheets. They really need full size blankets and full size flat sheets. Thank you!

Euchre

The next Euchre Night is Thursday August 6th. We will meet the 1st Thursday of each month. All are welcome! Please bring friends and a snack to share.

I Scream for Jesus

July 1-29 each Wednesday we will hold a bible study and ice cream social. If your committee, club, or organization would like to sponsor one of the events please see Pastor.

Market Day

Next month's Market Day orders are due July 10. Our pick up day is Wednesday July 15 from 3:00-4:00pm. Thank you!

Banners and Signs

Two signs, advertising enrollment at Emmaus Elementary School, one at Orange and Shelby, and one at Laurel and Prospect, were placed to attract interest as we reach out in our mission to bring more students into our great school. Two large banners were also placed in our front and side yards. And they have been working as we have been getting phone calls from interested parents. If anyone would like to contribute toward the cost of these signs and banners, please contact our school secretary or Ray Schultz.

In Memory Of:

A bequest to the unified budget was made by Margaret Wills in memory of Richard M. Wills of the Class of 1946.

A bequest was made to Concordia Cemetery in memory of Joseph Mack by the Mack Family.

Bequests were made to the Emmaus Food Pantry in memory of John Michaels by Bob & Sue Daniels, Ron & Bunny Flandermeyer, Debra Busbin, and Dr. Frank J. Daskalos

TO OUR VISITORS

We are very happy to have you with us today in worship. Being together and hearing God's Word strengthens our faith and love of one another.

I Chronicles 16:34

"Give thanks to the Lord for He is good: His love endures forever."

Tell a friend to join you at church!
